

Mong Chung Seng

Mong focuses on banking, corporate and commercial dispute resolution

He advises and represents financial institutions in disputes involving corporate insolvency, enforcement of debt instruments and securities, land law, recovery of conventional and Islamic banking facilities, and regulatory issues. He also regularly acts in commercial, construction and corporate disputes.

E : mcs@lh-ag.com | T : +603 6208 5864 | F : +603 6201 0122

Qualifications

- LLB (Hons) University of Wales, Cardiff
- Certificate in Legal Practice
- Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya

Practice Areas

- Banking & Financial Services Dispute Resolution
- Commercial, Construction and Corporate Dispute Resolution
- Insolvency

Notable Transactions

- Advised and represented financial institutions in enforcement of securities, including recovery and sale of aircraft, agricultural and development land, commercial and office building, hotel, plant and machinery, and shopping mall.
- Advised and represented financial institutions in a debt restructuring exercise of a public listed company involving debts of RM630 million.
- Advised and represented a financial institution in a dispute arising from cross-borders letters of credit transaction involving RM150 million.
- Advised and represented chargees and landowners in land disputes including successfully setting aside forfeiture of land and recovering possession of land.
- Defended a financial institution against a claim for breach of contract, conspiracy and negligence arising from sale and redemption of land valued at RM84 million.
- Representing a client in a claim relating to construction of a pedestrian bridge in Australia.
- Representing a client in respect of claims arising out of a project to convert a Floating Production Storage and Offloading vessel.
- Representing an Independent Power Producer in arbitration claims in excess of RM780 million.
- Representing a client in claims in excess of RM38 million arising out of construction of pipelines.
- Successfully restrained a threatened termination of an infrastructure construction contract valued at RM494 million.

Publications

- Contributor — The Malaysian Civil Procedure 2015 and 2013 by (Sweet & Maxwell Asia)