

Bella Chu Chai Yee

Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill is pleased to announce the admission to partnership of Bella Chu Chai Yee wef 1 August 2017.

Bella was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2010. In December that year, she commenced practice as an associate with the Dispute Resolution department at LHAG, focusing on banking litigation and high-value recovery work, before her transition to the mergers & acquisitions (M&A) practice in 2013.

Since then, she has worked on a wide range of M&A matters, with a focus on real estate transactions. She advises on direct and indirect acquisitions and disposals, joint ventures, restructurings and development projects. Her clients include real estate developers and listed corporations.

She also regularly acts for financial institutions and investment funds on cross-border and mezzanine financing.

Bella also advises on general corporate and commercial law.
