In the face of the largest penalty to date by the Malaysia Competition Commission (MyCC) for abuse of dominance, a proposed fine of RM87 million is looming over Grab for allegedly abusing its dominant position in the e-hailing market in Malaysia, following its merger with Uber in 2018.

In a recent conversation with BFM: The Business Station, Eunice Chan Wei Lynn, a partner with Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill, shared her views on the proposed fine and provided a general overview of Malaysia's current competition law landscape.
